Timed Online Bidding

A number of our sales are more suited to online auctions held to a timed deadline rather than a traditional live sale.

Timed sales allow clients to bid online without necessarily attending the premises and is often a more convenient method of sale. These auctions are fully catalogued and illustrated via our website with opportunities for viewing on the premises prior to the auction.

On-site auctions work well where we sell heavy machinery and volume stocks in-situ. Alternatively with our in-house fleet we can transport items to our premises for display and sale.

Retail Stock

Every year, we handle thousands of items including ex-display, surplus, end-of-line, and returned goods.

Our auctions feature a wide variety of stock sourced from well-known retailers. Most lots are sold in our regular weekly auctions, complete with live bidding, while we also host timed online auctions that allow for extended bidding periods. With years of experience in retail stock management, we're well-equipped to handle high-volume sales.

If you're looking to sell large quantities, get in touch with our team.
